

VEGAS BUZZ

Hip Happenings Not to Miss

BY BENEDETTA PIGNATELLI

Retro Vegas: The newest vintage store to grace downtown, Retro Vegas is the brainchild of trio Bill Johnson, a former director of the Atomic Testing Museum; Ben Nation, of VeryVintageVegas.com and Monster House fame; and collector Marc Comstock. The items on display are eclectic, to say the least, from a statue of Zelda (which was separated from its "healthier" twin at an auction from the corporate offices at Mandalay Bay and the only item not for sale) to a complete pink kitchen from the 1960s that comes from a Rancho Circle estate and includes a freezer, two ovens, one hanging two-door cabinet and a stove with four burners. Also on hand are a booth from Elvis-A-Rama, a Bacchanal sign from Caesars Palace, a metallic Halston gown, and two coffee tables handmade for Siegfried & Roy (above). 1211 South Main Street, 702-384-2700.

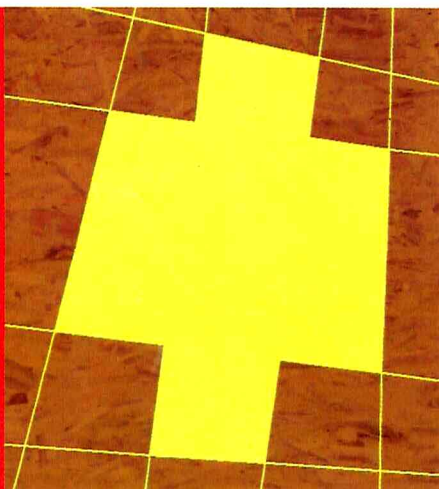

Alchimie Forever: Alchimie Forever, the Swiss antiaging beauty-care line that is currently experiencing a boom at Sephoras all over Europe, has arrived in Las Vegas, exclusively at Omni Chemists. The dynamic duo of physicians Barbara and Luigi Polla (who also own the avant-garde gallery Analix Forever in Geneva) have come up with a line that relies on botanicals and powerful antioxidants to control aging. It uses laser-related names (another passion of the Pollas) like Alexandrite, a gel for neck and décolletage that tightens and firms via green tea and rosemary, or Superpulse, a rejuvenating eye balm with active ingredients including alfalfa, jojoba and blueberries. At Omni Chemists at Fashion Show mall, 3200 Las Vegas Boulevard South, 702-731-1162.

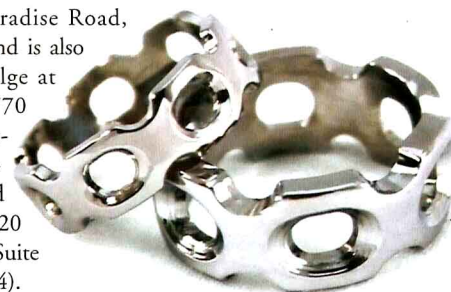

Aliante Station: Station Casinos is betting on the renaissance of North Las Vegas with the much awaited Aliante Station. The 202 guest rooms will offer amenities such as 42-inch plasma televisions and the contemporary flair from hipper-than-thou sister property Red Rock Casino Resort Spa. It will also feature a 16-screen Regal Cinemas movie theater, a 600-seat concert venue and six restaurants. Aliante's opening is scheduled for November 11th at 11:11 p.m. Reservations are available now and will be honored starting January 1st, 2009. 7300 Aliante Parkway, 702-692-7777.

"The Difference Between Making a Living and Making a Killing": Armed with a stellar reputation from her New York past, art-advisor-cum-gallery-owner Michele C. Quinn is currently in charge of acquisitions for CityCenter's Fine Art Collection. The August exhibit at her Michele C. Quinn Fine Art Advisory gallery is a group show with works by mostly Las Vegas-based artists, among them Chad Brown and his paintings that reconstruct experiences of time and place through line, contour and color, welder nonpareil J.W. Caldwell and Texan R.C. Wonderly III, whose minimalist work combines hardwood flooring, Sheetrock and plywood (shown right is his Untitled, 2008). MCQ recently exhibited works by lensman Kevin Lynch, whose high-gloss tome, Octagon (powerHouse, 2007), is a photographic narrative of the Ultimate Fighting Championship universe. Copies of the limited-edition $2,500 book may still be available at www.octagon-book.com. MCQ Fine Art Advisory: 620 South Seventh Street, 702-366-9339.

Skeletal Metal: Who would have thought that orthopedic surgery, not exactly the most soothing procedure, could produce an edgy jewelry line? Such is the adventurous (and surprisingly aesthetic) proposition Skeletal Metal, from Henderson surgeon Mike Crovetti. The rings, earrings, bracelets and necklaces are based on reconstructive plates used to mend broken bones. The line will debut at the Hard Rock Hotel & Casino retail store this month (4455 Paradise Road, 702-693-5003), and is also available at Indulge at Monte Carlo (3770 Las Vegas Boulevard South, 702-262-1621) and Broken Leash (8820 West Charleston, Suite 103, 702-202-1284).

UNTITLED BY R.C. WONDERLY III, 2008. RESIN ON WOOD PANEL, 16 BY 16 INCHES.