MCQ FINE ART ANNOUNCES NEW EXHIBITION IN NOVEMBER

ERIK BEEHN – FROM WHERE I STAND

MCQ Fine Art is pleased to present new works by Las Vegas native, Erik Beehn, opening November 5, 2014, on view through December 5, 2014. Returning briefly from his MFA studies at the Art Institute of Chicago, MCQ Fine Art will present an entirely new body of work that explores many new artistic directions as a result of his continued formal training. This will be Erik's second solo exhibition at MCQ Fine Art and the first to highlight his new direction in his work since beginning the MFA program. Drawings, photo collage and works on paper will be on view.

These dramatic and highly investigative works on paper by Erik are a testament to his commitment to creating work that is both visually complex and deeply personal. "As I explore my surroundings I find that predigested environments act as vehicles to memories past, and while unfamiliar environments may act as gateways for new experiences, they may also lead to a sense of discomfort. Portrayals of the mundane are occasionally unsettling, which is often taken for granted; my work honors the ordinary in our everyday lives in hopes of creating a personal experience for the viewer."

OPENING RECEPTION WITH THE ARTIST: November 5; 6-8 pm at MCQ Fine Art
