

FANTASTIC FIGURES

The whimsical creations of Los Angeles-based artists the Haas Brothers—made up of Simon and Nikolai Haas, who began their careers as furniture designers—are now on display through March 25 at Juhl Las Vegas (juhlv.com). Titled Haas Vegas!, the immersive exhibition teams fine art with design through the duo's brass, porcelain, cast-bronze and fur figurines that are playfully inspired by the intersection of nature, science fiction, sexuality and psychedelia. A pop-up collaboration between MCQ Fine Art (mcqfineart.com) and Marianne Boesky Gallery (marianneboeskygallery.com), the display is open to the public Thursday through Saturday and by appointment. Go ahead, get inspired.
